

I think that localized radio and television communications is a great service to local listeners/viewers. It is a great local rarity in this day in age. Any citizen should also have the right to own and operate any type of low power or Part 15 station/network.